Special presenters highlight DPLS' Fall Programming

[DEFIANCE] – From sports to sitcoms to the supernatural, Defiance Public Library System's free November programming has a wide assortment of interests covered.

Is the library...haunted?

Legends and ghost stories abound in Ohio. Paranormal investigator James Willis, founder of ghostsofOhio.org, has travelled all over the state gathering stories of hauntings, and he's coming to share them with us Nov. 6 beginning at 6 p.m. at the Stroede Center for the Arts, 319 Wayne Ave., Defiance. This event is free and open to the public; no registration or tickets required. (Presentation is geared to adults and teens.) The best part? He'll be sharing results of an investigation conducted in October at Defiance Public Library.

What is the greatest sitcom of all time?

Award-winning author and pop culture historian Martin Gitlin hosts a fun and enlightening presentation based on his book, The Greatest Sitcoms of All Time, on Nov. 29 at 7 p.m. at the Stroede Center for the Arts, 319 Wayne Ave., Defiance. This event is free and open to the public. Presentation is geared to adults 18+. No registration or tickets are required.

For the Cleveland baseball fans...

Take a journey through Cleveland baseball history with Martin Gitlin, author of the Ultimate Cleveland Indians Time Machine Book, on Nov. 29 at 5 p.m. in the Community Room at Sherwood Branch Library, 117 N. Harrison St., Sherwood. Presentation is geared to adults 18+. No registration required.
