Cookbook Club coming to Hicksville's Johnson Memorial Library

[HICKSVILLE] – Area foodies are invited to cook, connect, and of course, eat, together during the first-ever meeting of Johnson Memorial Library's Winter Cookbook Club for adults, set for Jan. 4.

The idea is simple: Check out the cookbook of the month, then prepare your favorite dish to share with the group. Visit the library during December to pick up a copy of the first book, Chrissy Teigen's "Cravings, Hungry for More." The club will meet at Johnson Memorial, 116 W. High St., Hicksville, on Jan. 4 at 5 p.m. in the Community Room to try the dishes. (Please note, no kitchen is available for heating/cooling foods, so prepare accordingly.)

The club will meet again Feb. 8 at 5 p.m. to try dishes from "Modern Comfort Food: A Barefoot Contessa Cookbook" by Ina Garten. Copies will be available for checkout at the library throughout the month of January.

No registration is required, and all are welcome.
