Decode the Mysteries of Cats with DPLS, pet pro Stephen Quandt

[DEFIANCE] – All are invited to join Defiance Public Library System and Stephen Quandt, FFCP, feline behavior specialist, on Feb. 17 at 6 p.m. for a fun, free, and informative Zoom webinar all about feline behavior.

During the 60-minute program, titled, “Decoding the Mysteries of Cats, or Why Cats Do What They Do!” Quandt will explain cat behavior from the perspective of the evolutionary and adaptive forces that help shape their lives. Those looking for behavior advice can connect with Quandt during a Q&A session.

Quandt most recently worked as the Feline Behavior Coordinator at one of the largest animal shelters in the US, the Animal Care Centers of NYC, where no animal is euthanized for space.

Register for the program at defiancelibrary.org/cats or by calling 419-782-1456. Registrants will receive a Zoom link via email. This webinar is geared to ages 16+.
