DPLS Celebrates Voter Registration Day

Register to vote at your Defiance County libraries

[DEFIANCE] - On Tuesday, September 20, Defiance Public Library System (DPLS) will join the Defiance County Board of Elections in celebrating National Voter Registration Day.

Every eligible American voter should have the option to exercise their right to be heard at the ballot box. Voter Registration Day is a good time to make sure registrations are completed or updated ahead of November's elections. Nearly 4.5 million Americans have registered to vote on the holiday since its inception in 2012.

Those eligible can get registration forms, update registrations, or request absentee ballots at any Defiance Public Library System location, including Defiance Public, Sherwood Branch, or Johnson Memorial (Hicksville) libraries. Staff members are available to assist library patrons with completing the forms, if needed.

Completed forms can be left with library staff for submission, mailed, or placed in the drop box outside the Defiance County Board of Elections, 1300 E. Second St., Suite 103, Defiance.

Free cookies will be available to all, while supplies last, on Sept. 20 at Defiance Public Library, 320 Fort St., to celebrate National Voter Registration Day.
