Fall Fest Returns to Johnson Memorial Library

[HICKSVILLE] – Johnson Memorial Library, 116 W. High St., is inviting the community to celebrate the season at its annual Fall Fest, taking place at the library Oct. 25 from 4:30–6:30 p.m.

All ages are welcome to join the fun, and enjoy snacks, games, fall-themed contests, and more. Costumes are more than welcome, and trophies will be awarded for best, scariest, and funniest costume.

“This year, I’m really looking forward to using our brand-new cotton candy machine,” said Angela Powell, Branch Manager at Johnson Memorial Library. “Our theme this year has a county fair/midway feel to it, so you have to have cotton candy.”

In addition, attendees will play Halloween BINGO and cornhole, have a chance to make an owl craft and spinning top, and compete in the ever-popular sack races, as well as a pie-eating contest.

The event is free; no tickets or registration are required. For more information, contact the library at 419-542-6200.
