Defiance Public Library to expand Monday hours

[DEFIANCE] – Beginning Nov. 7, Defiance Public Library, 320 Fort St., will expand its Monday hours and begin opening at 10 a.m.

“When the library began to open up at the end of the pandemic, its Monday opening time was changed to noon, allowing us to address changing COVID guidelines and staff shortages,” said Cara Potter, director of Defiance Public Library System (DPLS). “Now that we have overcome those hurdles, the library is opening at 10 a.m., offering the community access to a comfortable and welcoming public space, computers, newspapers, the book collection, and more, two hours earlier.”
