Library program highlights life & art of Max Miller

[HICKSVILLE] – Max Miller was a soldier and artist during World War II. He made several cartoons which were passed around the barracks and across the front lines to offer cheer and support to American military men and women. Once home, Max married his French sweetheart and went on to become an ad man.

Miller's son, Christian, will present a slide show of his dad's life and art on May 27 from 11 a.m.-noon at Johnson Memorial Library, 116 W. High St., Hicksville.

This special presentation is free and open to all adults. No registration is required. For more information, contact the library at 419-542-6200.
