The Circus is Coming to Defiance County

DEFIANCE – Prepare for zany fun and comedy tumbling: the circus is coming to Defiance County.

Cirque Amongus will perform at all 3 county libraries on June 26: Sherwood Branch at 1 p.m., Johnson Memorial (Hicksville) at 3:30 p.m., and Defiance Public at 6 p.m. The Defiance event will take place in the Summer Reading tent on the Fort Grounds.

Cirque Amongus is a Livonia, Mich.-based group using the circus arts to teach teamwork, build self-esteem, and develop motor skills.

These free events are geared to children and families. No tickets or registration are needed. Organizations bringing 5 or more people are asked to contact the library in advance at 419-782-1456 so their group can be comfortably accommodated.

Cirque Amongus' special presentation is sponsored by the Friends of Defiance, Sherwood, and Johnson Memorial libraries.

For more information on Cirque Amongus, visit cirqueamongus.com.
