County Libraries Hosting Fan Fiction Writing Contest

DEFIANCE – Didn't like how your favorite book ended? Rewrite it. Have theories about a character? Defiance Public Library System wants to hear them.

DPLS is hosting a Fan Fiction Writing Contest from July 1-28, with the winning entry to be distributed in the libraries in booklet form (and shared in the libraries' monthly newsletter).

Adults can submit a fan fiction short story reimagining a character or section of a book for a chance to win. Entries can be submitted to Defiance Public Library on or before July 28 at 5 p.m., or via email to vwestrick@defiancelibrary.org.

Writings must be submitted with a cover page, be between 3,000-5,000 words, and rated PG-13. The winning writer will be notified on August 11.

For complete contest rules, visit defiancelibrary.org/fanfic.
