Ohio Canid Center Coming to Defiance Public Library

DEFIANCE – The Ohio Canid Center will pay a special visit to Defiance Public Library, 320 Fort St., on July 6 at 5 p.m. to present 'Wild Canids of North America.'

Attendees will learn all about the wild canids (also known as dogs) found throughout North America, and even get to meet one of the Center's animal ambassadors.

The event will take place in the Summer Reading tent on the Fort Grounds, and is free and open to all ages. No registration is needed.

Ohio Canid Center is solely owned and operated by Rachel Lauren Robertson. Robertson has had a passion for wildlife (specifically wild canines) since childhood. She began her journey as a dog trainer and animal photographer and combined these passions into an educational program. She lives on a 19th century mini-farm with her husband, Trevor, and OCC's ambassador animals, which include wolves and foxes.

This program is sponsored by the Friends of Defiance Public Library.
