Library, Humane Society Partner Up to Help Pets

[HICKSVILLE] – Following a successful drive last year, Hicksville's Johnson Memorial Library will again gather donations for Fort Defiance Humane Society. The drive will take place Oct. 9-23.

In-kind donations can be dropped off at the library, 116 W. High St., during business hours. (The library cannot accept cash donations.) Wishlist items include dry dog/cat food, laundry detergent, copy paper, bottled water, new or gently used towels/blankets, bleach, KMR (kitten milk replacement) liquid, canned cat food, trash bags, and paper towels.

Then on Oct. 23, all ages are invited to visit the library at 5 p.m. and meet real, adoptable black cats from Fort Defiance Humane Society during a special event, "Debunking Black Cats." Dispel myths and replace them with facts about black cats. No registration is needed.

For more information, contact the library at 419-542-6200.
