Explore James Willis' 'Strange & Spooky World' at Defiance Public Library

[DEFIANCE] – Paranormal researcher James Willis' recent investigation at Defiance Public Library generated more questions than answers, and he'll unpack all of it during a special visit to the library, 320 Fort St., Defiance, on Nov. 11 at 11 a.m.

In addition to serving as founder and director of Ghosts of Ohio (ghostsofohio.org), Willis has authored more than a dozen books, including Southern Ohio Legends & Lore (2022), Ohio's Historic Haunts (2015), and Weird Ohio (2005, cowritten with Andrew Henderson and Loren Coleman).

Willis has spent the last 35 years chasing after ghosts, monsters, and all things strange and spooky, and he'll share some of his most unbelievable tales during this special library event.

"Strange and Spooky World with James Willis" is geared to adults. The program is free and open to all and is sponsored by the Friends of Defiance Public Library.

For more information, call the library at 419-782-1456.
