Santa Claus is Coming to Defiance Public Library

[DEFIANCE] – Santa Claus will make his way into downtown Defiance on Dec. 1, and you can join him for story time at Defiance Public Library (DPL), 320 Fort St., beginning at 5:15 p.m.

Leading up to his visit, holiday festivities will take place throughout the day at DPL, as part of the Defiance Development and Visitors' Bureau's 'Santa Claus is Coming to Town' annual event.

Four kids' crafts will be available in the children's department from 1-5 p.m., while supplies last. Carolers from Nightshade Productions will delight the crowd with holiday music beginning at 4:30 p.m., and Santa's arrival in downtown Defiance is slated for 5 p.m. (watch the Purple Heart Bridge to catch his big entrance).

Attendees can treat themselves to cookies and milk provided by Chief Supermarket and Arps Dairy, while supplies last.

From 5:30-8 p.m., take a free trip on the Holiday Trolley, loading and unloading at Triangle Park, courtesy of Defiance Karate. Then, Santa will be waiting in his house at Triangle Park from 6-8 p.m. to read Christmas lists and meet his fans.

DPL's Dec. 1 holiday happenings are supported by the Friends of Defiance Public Library. For more information, contact the library at 419-782-1456.
